

Chris: Hey Peter, can I tell you a secret?

Peter: Sure, I won't tell anybody.

Chris: You have to promise not to tell anybody.

Peter: OK. I promise not to tell anybody.

Chris: Can I really trust you?

Peter: Yes, you can trust me. Tell me your secret!

Chris: OK. I don't brush my teeth in the morning. I pretend to brush my teeth, but I don't.

Peter: That's disgusting! I'm going to tell my mother!

- ❖ Who do you trust?
- ❖ What do you think is disgusting?
- ❖ What is Chris' secret? Do you think it is disgusting?
- ❖ How often do you brush your teeth?

Play a game: Pretend to be an animal or person, and the class has to guess which animal or person you are.

Make a sentence: I promise not to _____ if you promise to _____.