

Steve: What do you have, Daniel?

Daniel: I have a slingshot. I want to shoot something.

Steve: Really? What do you want to shoot?

Daniel: I don't know. Maybe I will shoot an owl or a lizard.

Steve: Daniel, a slingshot is very dangerous. If you shoot an owl or a lizard, you will probably kill it.

Daniel: You are right. I should be careful. Maybe I will just shoot a tree.

- ❖ Why should Daniel be careful?
- ❖ Is it okay to kill animals?
- ❖ What other things are dangerous?

Make a sentence: If you _____, you will probably _____.