

6.2 Relative Clauses (that / which / who) #1

Read the paragraphs below, and follow the instructions.

PART 1

There are three women in the room. My Aunt Martha is talking on her cell phone. My sister Kelly is sitting on the sofa. My mother is reading a magazine. Answer the questions below using relative clauses. (The first one is done for you.)

1. Which woman is your sister?

My sister is the woman who is sitting on the sofa.

Or: The woman who is sitting on the sofa is my sister.

2. Which woman is your mother?

3. Which woman is your aunt?

PART 2

You brought your dogs to a dog park. Many dogs are playing and running around. Your oldest dog is laying under a tree and watching the other dogs. Your youngest dog is playing with a little brown dog. Your neighbor's dog is chasing a cat. Answer the questions below using relative clauses.

1. Which one is your youngest dog?

2. Which one is your oldest dog?

3. Which one is your neighbor's dog?
