

Mom: Oh, no! My vase is broken! Who broke my vase?!

Joel: Tim broke it. He was holding it and he dropped it.

Tim: Don't blame me. I didn't do it.

Mom: Tell me the truth. Who broke my favorite vase?

Tim: Joel broke it! He bumped into the table and your vase fell on the floor. It was an accident.

Mom: Joel! You said that Tim dropped it! I'm going to punish you because you told a lie.

- ❖ Why is Mom going to punish Joel?
- ❖ Has someone ever blamed you for something that you didn't do?
- ❖ When was the last time you were punished? Why were you punished? What was the punishment?

Make a sentence: I'm going to _____ because _____.

Fill in the blanks with vocabulary words from the dialogue above.

Joel _____ into the table and the _____ fell and broke.
Joel's mother was angry because Joel told a _____ and blamed his brother, so she _____ him.