

6.10 Relative Clauses: No Prepositions at the End of Sentences!

Rewrite the following sentences without a preposition at the end.

1. Can you see the table that Jessica is sitting at?

2. He is the person I was referring to.

3. Who are you arguing with?

4. The actor has a disease that there is no cure for.

5. The 400m race is the event that Jason trained for.

6. That is the park that I used to live near.

7. In that picture, Robin is the girl who I'm standing by.

